Ryan Shelby Dodson I love how she claims to be all about health and nutrition and on one of her videos she pulls out a multivitamin and and a plastic container of powdered fiber! lol That was her superfood....

David Crowe According to her (we were once facebook 'friend's) she was asymptomatic and not on drugs for a long time. But then her CD4 counts "forced" her onto the drugs. As a hispanic lesbian who can't seem to get enough attention (especially on how beautiful she is), she is perfect for propaganda.

David Crowe I think she's intensely photoshopped. Look at that hair, it's just a single unit, not individual strands.

Brian Carter I hold this person to be, in some part due to her name her parents gave her with heavy relevance to Catholicism and to what so often what happens to people who's "positivity" rockets them into the priesthood, an attention whore.

Her and hundreds of others like her find console in their new found cult. Those of poor self esteem, weak minded and often trained seals are pigs in mud. Maria HIV is all but another sad sap poster child wanabe.

And Anti-HIV meds heighten and instill this unfortunate and self inflicted delusion.
